

PHILIPP SCHULTE- NOELLE

GROUP COO / GROUP CFO (INTERIM)

Philipp Schulte-Noelle was appointed to the role of Group COO in September 2023, assuming responsibility across MEDIAN for digital health, research and innovation, quality management, services, estates and facilities, projects, IT, and marketing and communications. As of January 2024 Schulte-Noelle is also responsible for financial operations on an interim basis.

Schulte-Noelle was most recently CEO and CFO of medical technology manufacturer Ottobock between 2018 and 2022. He previously held various positions at global healthcare group Fresenius, including Senior Vice President, Head of Corporate Business Development/Mergers and Acquisitions, and CFO of Fresenius Kabi (a division providing healthcare products for critically and chronically ill patients).

Passionate about tech-enabled growth, Philipp has extensive knowledge of the healthcare sector, MedTech, organisational transformation, M&A, capital market readiness and ESG.